Owing to the increase in the business of horse-thieving the citizens of North Strabane and Chartiers townships, met at Patton's Mill some days ago, for the purpose of adopting measures for the purpose of borses, and after consultation a company was organized called the Chartiers Horse Protecting Company the purpose of which will be searching after stolen horses that belong to members of the company, and arresting and bringing to justice the thouse of Delegates, renominated Nathan Goff, Esq., of Clarksburg, and Solomon S. Fleming, Esq., of Shinnston, who have held seats in the House ever since the organization of the new State. These gentlemen have ranked amongst the most useful and influential members of the House. No doubt exists of their election. We suppose there will be no organized opposition on the part of the Copperheads.
